DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Species A, drawn to forming the strip by plating, readable on claims 18, 32, and 37

Species B, drawn to forming the strip by drilling, readable on claims 21-22, 33-34, and 38-39.

Species C, drawn to forming strip by etching, readable on claims 23, 35, and 40

Species D, drawn to forming second conductive layer, readable on claims 24-30.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 17, 19, 20, 31 and 36 are generic claim.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Art Unit: 3729

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

2. During a telephone conversation with William E. Alford on June 7, 2005 a provisional election was made without traverse to prosecute the invention of Species A, claims 18, 32, and 37. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claims 21-30, 33-35, and 38-40 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

3. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Claims 17-20, 31-32, and 36-37 are examined on the merits as follow:

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 3729

(e) The invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

5. Claims 17-20, 31-32, and 36-37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by US Patent 5,825,084 to Lau et al.

Regarding claims 17, 31, and 36, Lau et al disclose a method of forming an integrated circuit package (see Fig. 1B), comprising: providing a package housing having a rectangular bond shelf (100, 200 etc.) with a rectangular top surface and an inside surface perpendicular with the top surface (See Figs. 3A, C), the bond shelf having a first plurality of bonding pads (110') located on the top surface; forming a conductive material (Col. 5, lines 32-33) along the side surface of the bond shelf, a first portion of the conductive material wrapping around from the inside surface onto the top surface of the bond shelf to couple to at least one of the first plurality of bonding pads on the top surface of the bond shelf (See Fig. 4C); and, removing a second portion (130) of the conductive material along the inside surface of the bond shelf to form a pair of separate conductive strips along the inside surface of the bond shelf (see Figs. 2A, 3D, 4D). Thus, Lau et al meet every limitation of claims 17, 31, and 36.

Regarding claims 18, 32, and 37, Lau et al disclose the limitations recited in these claim i.e., the forming of conductive strip by plating a conductive material onto the first edge (Col. 5, lines 39-41).

Regarding claims 19-20, Lau et al disclose the first conductor under the first bond shelf is being a power bus (Col. 4, lines 41-47) and/or being a routing trace (150) as depicted in Fig. 2C.

Art Unit: 3729

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The prior art of reference cited for the teaching of forming an integrated circuit package.
